Southeastern Ohio
ROLL of HONOR
Proudly dedicated to the men and women of Southeastern Ohio who are serving their country in the hour of its greatest need.

DO NOT REMOVE LABEL FROM GLASS

Southeastern Ohio's Roll of Honor, a tribute by The Times Recorder and Zanesville Signal to those who are fighting for liberty in World War II, is a large volume in which the names of all men and women in service will be inscribed by members of their families. The handsomely bound register reposes on a specially-designed pedestal, surrounded by flags of the United Nations, which create an effective Service Shrine in the lobby of The Zanesville Publishing Company's building at 34 South Fourth St. Dedicated by Lieut. Gov. Paul M. Herbert, it will be formally closed by Gov. John W. Bricker when victory is won.
